There's also a Register option in the navigation bar along the top of the Event Home Page.

You may also be able to register by clicking the Register For This Event button below the thermometer displayed on the Event Home Page, an individual fundraiser's page, a team fundraising page, or a classification fundraising page.

There may also be a registration button along the bottom of the Event Home Page content area in the footer.

Clicking any of these choices will take you to the first step of registration, where you'll choose if you want to register as a Fundraising Participant and have your own fundraising page. We'll be registering as a fundraiser for this example.

You can register using your email address, Facebook, or Google. If you use Facebook, the email address you used to sign up for Facebook will be the email on file for your registration. The email you used to sign up for Google will be used if you choose to register using Google. When you log in, your Facebook or Google credentials will automatically log you in; you won't have to enter an email address or password. You'll also follow the same steps for registration outlined below.

First, you may be asked to choose a classification. A classification defines what company you'll be participating with. Click the button next to your desired classification.
